This Prospectus has been issued by Resource and Investment NL (ABN 77 085 806 284) (the Company or RNI) and was lodged with ASIC on and is dated 22 February 2012. This Prospectus replaces the prospectus (Original Prospectus) that was lodged by the Company with ASIC on and was dated 17 February 2012.

Since the Original Prospectus was lodged it has been determined that the Company will proceed with the Offer irrespective of the outcome of the Shareholders' Meeting convened for 6 March 2012 (Meeting) to consider resolutions relating to the Transaction, the issue of Consideration Securities and the issue of Placement Securities. This Prospectus provides information concerning the Company's intentions and use of funds if the Shareholders' resolutions to be considered at the Meeting are passed and the Company Completes the Transaction and issues the Consideration Securities and the Placement Securities, and also its intentions and use of funds if it does not Complete the Transaction or issue the Consideration Securities or the Placement Securities. This Prospectus also provides details of the use of funds from the Offer if the conditions for the underwriting are not satisfied and the Offer is accordingly not underwritten and may not be fully subscribed, and makes the Offer conditional on the receipt of applications for a minimum subscription before the Company proceeds with the Offer and issues New Shares and New Options to applicants.

Neither ASX nor ASIC take any responsibility for the contents of this Prospectus.

No shares (or other securities) will be issued on the basis of this Prospectus later than 13 months after the date of this Prospectus.

This Prospectus is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to the Company which has been notified to ASX and does not include all information that would be included in a prospectus for an initial public offering and Eligible Shareholders should rely on their own knowledge of the Company, refer to disclosures made by the Company to ASX and consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to invest in the securities offered by this Prospectus. DETAILS OF THE OFFER

The Offer

This Prospectus is for the offer (the Offer) of new securities pursuant to a pro rata non-renounceable entitlements issue offered to Eligible Shareholders on the basis of 1 new Share (New Share) at an issue price of 35 cents for every 4 Shares held at 5.00pm (WST) on 2 March 2012 (the Record Date), together with 1 free attaching New Option, each exercisable at 60 cents at any time before 5.00pm WST on 31 May 2013 for every 5 New Shares issued.

In calculating Entitlements, fractions of New Shares and free attaching New Options will be rounded up to the nearest whole number.

Disregarding any Entitlements relating to Shares issued on the exercise of options before the Record Date, approximately 31,246,077 New Shares and 6,249,216 free attaching New Options will be issued pursuant to the Offer, if it is fully subscribed, raising approximately $10,936,000 before the costs of the Offer.

Background

The Offer follows the announcement of the Company's proposed acquisition of the Fortnum Gold Project and surrounding exploration tenements (the Transaction) by the purchase of the sole issued share (GG Share) in Grosvenor Gold Pty Ltd ABN 98 126 541 624 (Grosvenor Gold) from BlueCrest Mercantile Master Fund Limited (BlueCrest) pursuant to a conditional share purchase agreement (SPA) between the Company and BlueCrest for a total consideration of $35 million (exclusive of GST) payable at Completion of the Transaction by means of:

- a) a cash payment of $20,000,000 to BlueCrest (Cash Payment); and

- b) the issue to BlueCrest of 42,857,143 Consideration Shares and 8,571,429 May 2013 Options. The number of Consideration Shares was calculated on the basis of an issue price of $0.35 each, being the price (in dollars) at which the Company proposes to issue the Placement Shares. The 8,571,429 May 2013 Options are being issued to BlueCrest on a basis consistent with the issue of May 2013 Options under the Placement.

The Company has announced that it will fund the payment of the Cash Payment through the funds raised from the issue of the Placement Shares.

Completion of the acquisition of the GG Share pursuant to the SPA is conditional on the approval of Shareholders under ASX Listing Rule 11.1, and issue of the Placement Securities to raise the funds for the payment of the Cash Payment of $20 million due to BlueCrest under the SPA and the issue of Consideration Securities to BlueCrest are both conditional on the approval of Shareholders under ASX Listing Rule 7.1. The Meeting of Shareholders has been convened to be held on 6 March 2012 for the purpose of considering resolutions for these approvals under ASX Listing Rules 11.1 and 7.1.

All 3 resolutions (the Shareholders' Resolutions) for Shareholders' approval are interdependent, and if any one of these resolutions is not passed, the Company will not proceed with Completion of the Transaction or the issue of the Placement or Consideration Securities.

IMPORTANT NOTICE – Offer Not Conditional

Although it is proposed that some of the funds raised under the Offer and Shortfall Offer will be applied in relation to the Grosvenor Gold Projects, the Offer is not conditional on Completion of the Transaction or the issue of the Consideration Securities or Placement Securities. If the Shareholders' Resolutions are not passed and the Company accordingly does not proceed with Completion of the Transaction or issue the Consideration and Placement Securities, the Company will still proceed with the Offer and Shortfall Offer and the funds raised will be applied towards the Company's other projects (refer to USE OF PROCEEDS below).

Minimum Subscription

The Offer is conditional upon the amount of at least $4,000,000 before costs (the Minimum Subscription) being subscribed under the Offer (including amounts subscribed under the Shortfall Offer), and no New Shares or New Options will be issued pursuant to the Offer or the Shortfall Offer until the Minimum Subscription is reached.

If the Company does not receive applications for at least the Minimum Subscription, the Company will not proceed with the Offer and all application monies will be returned to applicants without interest.

Underwriter

The Offer will be managed and conditionally underwritten by Argonaut Capital Limited (ABN 18 099 761 547) (Argonaut) in terms of an agreement (Underwriting Agreement) (refer to ADDITIONAL INFORMATION –Underwriting Agreement). The Underwriting Agreement is conditional on, among other things, the approval of the Transaction by Shareholders and, accordingly, the underwriting will fall away if the Transaction is not approved or if another condition to the underwriting is not satisfied (unless such conditions are waived by Argonaut).

Argonaut will be entitled to an underwriting fee equal to 5% of the total value of the New Shares being offered to Eligible Shareholders pursuant to the Offer (Underwritten Shares), which does not include any entitlement arising from the conversion of any of RNI options, which are not underwritten or covered by the Underwriting Agreement unless agreed to by Argonaut, in its sole and absolute discretion, and a management fee of 1% of the total value of the Underwritten Shares. In addition, Argonaut will be entitled to reimbursement of all costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by it in relation to the Offer, including but not limited to legal expenses, marketing and promotional materials and expenditure and travel and accommodation costs, but such costs and expenses are not to exceed $10,000 without the Company's prior approval.

Acting On Your Entitlement

The number of New Shares to which a Shareholder is entitled (Entitlement) under the Offer is shown on the form (Entitlement and Acceptance Form) accompanying this Prospectus and headed Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

As the Offer is non-renounceable, Shareholders may not sell or transfer any part of their Entitlements.

If you do not accept your full Entitlement, your percentage shareholding in the Company will be diluted as a result of any New Shares issued under this Prospectus and may be further diluted by the exercise of any New Options.

As a Shareholder you may:

- a. accept your full Entitlement;
- b. accept part of your Entitlement and allow the balance to lapse; or
- c. do nothing (in which case you will receive no benefit from your Entitlement).

To accept your Entitlement

If you wish to accept all or part of your Entitlement, you must:

EITHER:

- d. complete the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions set out in that form, specifying the number of New Shares applied for by you; and
- e. forward the completed form, together with a cheque or bank draft payable in Australian Dollars for the amount due in respect of New Shares applied for, calculated at 35 cents per New Share, to reach the Company's Share

Registrars no later than 5.00pm WST on 21 March 2012. Cheques or bank drafts must be made payable to "Resource and Investment NL" and crossed "Not Negotiable";

OR, ALTERNATIVELY

- f. pay the amount due in respect of New Shares applied for, calculated at 35 cents per New Share, by BPAY no later than 5.00pm WST on 21 March 2012, by following the instructions set out in the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

You are not required to take any action in relation to the free attaching New Options. The New Options are free and accordingly New Option will be issued for every 5 New Shares issued, with fractional entitlements being rounded up to the next whole number.

Note: Any part of your Entitlement that is not accepted and paid for by 5.00pm WST on 21 March 2012 will lapse and form part of the Shortfall, and you will receive no benefit from that part.

Shortfall

If any Shareholders do not accept their whole Entitlement, the number of unaccepted New Shares (and free attaching New Options) will form the Shortfall (Shortfall).

Pursuant to the exception contained in Exception 3 of ASX Listing Rule 7.2, the Directors, as part of the Offer, reserve the right to issue the Shortfall at their discretion within 3 months after the close of the Offer, at an issue price of not less than 35 cents for each New Share comprised in the Shortfall, together with 1 free attaching New Option for every 5 New Shares. The Directors will exercise this discretion in consultation with Argonaut as manager and underwriter to the Offer.

Subject to any restrictions imposed by law, Eligible Shareholders (other than Directors and Related Parties) in addition to their Entitlements and other investors may apply to subscribe under the Shortfall Offer for New Shares comprised in the Shortfall at an issue price of 35 cents each (being the same price for New Shares under the Offer), with 1 free attaching New Option for every 5 New Shares issued, by completing the Shortfall Application Form (headed Shortfall Application Form) accompanying this Prospectus in accordance with the instructions set out in that form and forwarding that form, together with a cheque or bank draft payable in Australian Dollars for the amount calculated in accordance with the instructions on that form, to reach the Company's Share Registrars no later than 5.00pm WST on 21 March 2012. Cheques or bank drafts must be made payable to "Resource and Investment NL" and crossed "Not Negotiable".

There is no guarantee that an application made in a Shortfall Application Form will be successful, and the Directors reserve the right, in consultation with Argonaut as manager and underwriter to the Offer, to allocate, subject to the terms of this Prospectus, any New Shares and free attaching New Options that may be comprised in the Shortfall at their absolute discretion, and may allot to an applicant a lesser number of New Shares and New Options than the number for which the applicant applied, or to reject an application, or to not proceed with placing all or part of Shortfall pursuant to Shortfall Application Forms. If the number of New Shares and free attaching New Options, allotted to an applicant is less than the number applied for, surplus application money will be refunded in full without interest.

Subject to a number of exceptions, section 606 of the Corporations Act prohibits a person from increasing their voting power in the Company from 20% or below to more than 20%, or from a starting point that is above 20% and below 90%. Accordingly, an applicant will not be entitled to New Shares, and free attaching New Options, under the Shortfall Offer to the extent that the issue and allotment of those securities would result in a breach of section 606 of the Corporations Act.

Applicants for New Shares, and free attaching New Options, under the Shortfall Offer must satisfy themselves that applying for those securities will not result in a breach of the Corporations Act.

Closing Date

The closing date (Closing Date) for acceptances will be 5:00 pm WST on 21 March 2012. Subject to ASX Listing Rules, the Directors may extend this Closing Date (with or without notice and either before or after that date).

Issue of New Shares

The New Shares and New Options will be issued, and holding statements dispatched to Shareholders to whom New Shares and New Options have been issued, as soon as practicable after the Closing Date.

Application Monies

Application monies will be held in a separate bank account on behalf of applicants until the New Shares and New Options are issued. If any application is rejected in whole or in part, the amount tendered in respect of New Shares, and free attaching New Options that have not been issued will be repaid to the unsuccessful applicant without interest.

ASX Listing

Application will be made to the ASX within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus for quotation of the New Shares and New Options. If the application for the quotation of the New Shares and New Options on ASX is not made within 7 days after the date of this Prospectus, or if the New Shares and New Options are not granted quotation within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus, the Company will:

- a) repay all application monies received with respect to the Offer, without interest; or
- b) give the applicants a supplementary or replacement Prospectus and 1 month to withdraw their applications and be repaid; or
- c) issue the New Shares and New Options to the applicants and give them a supplementary or replacement Prospectus and one month to withdraw their applications and be repaid.

The fact that ASX may grant quotation of the New Shares and New Options is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company, the New Shares or the New Options.

Note: The above tables do not take into account the Entitlements that would attach to Shares that would be issued if any of the existing options described in the tables were exercised before the Record Date.

If the Offer is not fully subscribed, the number of Shares and New Options specified in the above tables on completion of the Offer will decrease by the under-subscribed amount.

Control Implications

If the Consideration Shares and Placement Shares are not issued and all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements in full, the Offer will have no effect on the control of the Company.

If the Consideration Shares are issued to BlueCrest and the Placement Shares are also issued, the 42,857,143 Consideration Shares issued to BlueCrest would equate to about 17.87% of the Shares on issue before completion of the Offer (assuming no options had been exercised before completion of the issue of the Consideration Shares to BlueCrest which would dilute its percentage holding) and, with its 8,571,429 May 2013 Options, BlueCrest's potential percentage shareholding on a fully diluted basis if all RNI options on issue were exercised would be about 19%, but both these percentages will reduce accordingly if any New Shares and the attaching New Options are issued under the Offer.

If the Consideration Shares and Placement Shares are issued and all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements in full, the total percentage interest that the 42,857,143 Consideration Shares issued to BlueCrest will represent in the issued capital of the Company on completion of the Offer will equate to about 15.81 % of the Shares on issue after completion of the Offer (assuming no options have been exercised before completion of the Offer) and, with its 8,571,429 May 2013 Options, BlueCrest's potential percentage shareholding on a fully diluted basis if all RNI options on issue were exercised would be about 16.69% of the fully diluted capital of the Company.

If Eligible Shareholders do not take up their Entitlements in full, their respective percentage holdings in the Company may be diluted by the issue of New Shares to other applicants, and the percentage shareholding of Non-Resident Shareholders not permitted to participate in the Offer may also be diluted by New Shares and New Options issued under the Offer.

Shareholders who apply for additional New Shares and New Options under the Shortfall Offer may increase their interests beyond their Entitlements. This could result in the dilution of holdings of those who failed to accept their Entitlements in full and those who failed to apply for additional New Shares and New Options under the Shortfall Offer.

Effect of Offer on Financial Position

Assuming that the Offer is fully subscribed, the Company's cash reserves, contributed equity and net assets will increase by approximately $10,244,024 which is the amount that would be raised pursuant to the Offer (approximately $10,936,126), less the estimated costs of the Offer (approximately $692,103, which includes the underwriting and management fees of approximately $546,806 and $109,361 respectively, plus GST of approximately $10,936 on the management fees) that would be payable to Argonaut if the Offer is fully subscribed).

Table 4 are unaudited pro forma balance sheets showing in:

Column 4: An unaudited post-Offer pro forma balance sheet based on the last audited accounts and balance sheet of the Company as at the Balance Date reflecting the effect of the Offer on the financial position of the Company if the Placement and Consideration Shares are not issued and the Transaction is not Completed. The unaudited estimated Post-Offer pro forma balance sheet has been derived from the pre-offer pro forma balance sheet in column 1 adjusted to reflect the issue of 31,246,077 New Shares under the Offer at $0.35 each to raise approximately $10,936,127 before the costs of the Offer (assuming that the Offer is fully subscribed and no options are converted after the date of this Prospectus but before the Record Date), less the estimated costs of the Offer of approximately $692,103.

As indicated in the Post-Offer pro-forma balance sheet above, the effect of raising a net amount of $10,244,024 by the Offer is that cash increases by this amount, as does net contributed equity and net assets. If there is a shortfall of cash raised by the Offer, the shortfall will be reflected in a correspondingly lower amount of cash than shown above, and a lower amount of net contributed equity and net assets.

Given the nature of the Company's business, the allocation of funds detailed in the above table may change depending on environmental, regulatory, market conditions and other natural and commercial factors. The information set out in Tables 5A and 5B is a statement of present intention as at the date of this Prospectus. However the exact quantum of funds expended by the Company on any particular item will be dependent on many factors including those described above.

In the opinion of the Directors, the Company will not be materially disadvantaged if the Offer is not fully subscribed. The Company will still be able to pursue its objectives but will do so at a reduced rate than if the Offer had been fully subscribed. Funds raised from the Offer will be applied firstly towards payment of the costs of the Offer and the balance applied to the Company's Fortnum West, Doolgunna and Three Rivers Projects and general expenses.

In the opinion of the Directors, the Company will not be materially disadvantaged if the Offer is not fully subscribed. If the conditional underwriting remains in place, the balance of funds will be subscribed for by Argonaut. If the conditional underwriting falls away, the Company will still be able to pursue its objectives but will do so at a reduced rate than if the Offer had been fully subscribed. Funds raised from the Offer will be applied firstly towards payment of the costs of the Offer and the balance will be allocated and applied to the Company's Grosvenor Gold, Fortnum West, Doolgunna and Three Rivers Projects and general expenses.

From the management and underwriting fees, Argonaut will pay all fees required to be paid to sub-underwriters, brokers and investors in connection with the Offer. During the two years ended 22 February 2012 Argonaut has been paid approximately $272,893 (exclusive of GST) as management and placement fees and underwriting commission for previous services undertaken for the Company. Argonaut and its employees and/or clients may hold securities in RNI and these holdings of securities may change at any time or times.

In addition, on Completion, the Company will grant Argonaut the right, but not the obligation, to subscribe for 3,597,621 options, at an issue price of $0.001 each, exercisable at 43.75 cents each within 3 years after Completion.

Underwriting Agreement

In terms of the Underwriting Agreement, Argonaut has agreed to manage and underwrite the Offer on the basis that, inter alia:

1. the Underwriting Agreement relates to both the Placement and the Offer.
2. The Underwriting Agreement in relation to the Offer is conditional, inter alia, on:
 - a) Argonaut being able to obtain sub-underwriting commitments to its sole satisfaction;
 - b) the Company receiving the funds from the Placement from Placement Investors or, failing that, complies with the requirements for Argonaut to provide it with the difference between the funds received from Placement Investors and $25,200,000. These requirements include the Company not being in breach of any term entitling Placement Investors to avoid their commitments, the Company being ready, willing and able to perform all of its obligations in relation to the Acquisition as at the Placement Settlement Date and the Company causing the Placement Securities that would have been issued to the Placement Investors who have failed to deliver their Placement Commitments into a trust account, to be issued and registered to an account or accounts nominated by Argonaut;
 - c) Shareholders passing the Shareholders' Resolutions to approve the Transaction and the issue of the Placement and Consideration Shares; and

- d) Argonaut completing a review of the Company to its sole satisfaction.
3. The conditions are solely for the benefit of Argonaut and they may either waive the conditions, or extend the time for satisfaction of the conditions. Argonaut has confirmed that the condition described in paragraphs 2(a) and (d) have been satisfied.
 4. The Shareholders' Resolutions described in paragraph 2(c) are scheduled to be considered by Shareholders at the Meeting convened for 6 March 2012. If the Shareholders do not pass the Shareholders' Resolutions to approve the Transaction and the issue of the Placement and Consideration Shares or if the Shareholders' Resolution are passed by the Shareholders but the condition specified in paragraph 2(b) is not satisfied within 2 business days after the passing of the Shareholders' Resolutions or such other date as is agreed in writing by Argonaut as the date for delivery of the Placement Funds, the remaining obligations of Argonaut to underwrite the Offer pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement will immediately terminate and neither party shall have any further rights against the other party, other than in respect of breaches of the Underwriting Agreement which arose prior to its termination and any outstanding accrued obligations as to payment of fees and expenses. In that case the Offer would effectively not be underwritten.
 5. Immediately after issue of the Underwritten Shares, the Company must pay to Argonaut an underwriting fee equal to 5% of the total value of the Underwritten Shares, a management fee of 1% of the total value of the Underwritten Shares and must pay, in addition to those fees, all costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by Argonaut in connection with the Placement Financing and the Offer. These costs and expenses are not to exceed $10,000 without the prior approval of the Company.
 6. If the Underwriting Agreement terminates, all of the costs and expenses incurred or accrued by Argonaut and payable by the Company under the Underwriting Agreement remain payable on Argonaut's demand.
 7. Amounts payable under the Underwriting Agreement are exclusive of GST and if GST is imposed on any taxable supply made under the Underwriting Agreement, the amount of that payment will be increased by the applicable GST.
 8. The Company has agreed to indemnify and keep indemnified Argonaut, its Related Bodies Corporate and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives and advisers (Indemnified Parties) from and against any and all claims, actions, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, or expenses, including costs for legal advice on a solicitor-client basis, (Losses) which any Indemnified Party incurs or suffers in respect of or in any way relating to the Offer, this Prospectus or the Underwriting Agreement, including any Losses in connection with any investigation, enquiry or hearing by the ASIC, ASX, a government or any Governmental Agency. It is acknowledged and agreed that, in relation to the indemnity, Argonaut is contracting for the benefit of each of the Indemnified Parties and that any Indemnified Party may enforce the indemnity on his or her behalf or Argonaut may enforce it on their behalf. The Company has also agreed to reimburse or provide for payment of any Losses suffered personally by any other Indemnified Party in respect of certain matters and has agreed to reimburse the Underwriter and each of its Indemnified Parties for expenses, and to pay Argonaut and the Indemnified Parties at their standard professional charge out rate for all time spent in connection with any investigations, enquiries or legal proceedings, or defending any claim or potential claim whatsoever and from whomsoever, relating to or arising out of this Prospectus, the Offer or the Underwriting Agreement.
 9. The indemnity under the Underwriting Agreement does not extend to and is not an indemnity against any amount in respect of which the indemnity would be illegal, void or unenforceable under any law; or to any Losses, to the extent that they arise, either directly or indirectly, out of the negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud on the part of the Indemnified.
 10. The indemnity under the Underwriting Agreement survives completion or termination of the Underwriting Agreement, and if the indemnity is held invalid in whole or in part, Argonaut and the Company will share the Losses on a proportional basis with Argonaut contributing that proportion of the Losses that its fees as bear to the total amount of the capital raised by the Offer and the Company contributing the balance of the Losses.
 11. Argonaut may elect to terminate the Underwriting Agreement if, inter alia:
 - a) the Company fails to perform or evinces an intention that it will not perform any of its material obligations under the Placement, or the Placement becomes incapable of being satisfied at the fault of the Company;
 - b) Argonaut reasonably forms the view that there is a material omission from this Prospectus or that it contains a material statement which is misleading or deceptive, or a material statement has become misleading or deceptive, or that any projection or forecast in the Prospectus becomes, to a material extent, incapable of being met or unlikely to be met in the projected time;
 - c) ASIC gives notice of intention to hold a hearing under section 739(2) of the Corporations Act or makes an interim order under section 739(3) of that act, or any person other than Argonaut who consented to being named in this Prospectus withdraws that consent;
 - d) Argonaut reasonably forms the view that a supplementary or replacement document (as appropriate) must be lodged with ASIC, and the Company does not lodge such a document in the form and content, and within the time reasonably required by Argonaut;
 - e) ASX does not give approval for the Placement Shares or the New Shares to be listed for official quotation, or if approval is granted, the approval is subsequently withdrawn, qualified or withheld;
 - f) the Company does not at any time use its best endeavours to list the May 2013 Options or the New Options issued pursuant to the Offer, on ASX;

- g) the S&P/ASX Small Ordinaries Index (ASX Code: XSO) falls more than 10% from the date of the Underwriting Agreement for a period of 3 continuous business days;
- h) a Director of the Company or any Related Body Corporate is charged with an indictable offence;
- i) the Company or a Related Body Corporate takes any steps to undertake a proposal contemplated under section 257A of the Corporations Act or passes or takes any steps to pass a resolution under section 260B of that Act, without Argonaut's prior written consent;
- j) the Company's bankers not terminating or issuing any demand or penalty notice or amending the terms of any existing facility or claiming repayment or accelerated repayment of any facility or requiring additional security for any existing facility;
- k) any change occur to laws, regulations or policies which does or is likely to prohibit, restrict or regulate the principal business of the Company, the Offer or the operation of stock markets generally;
- l) the Company or any Related Body Corporate fails to comply with any provision of its Constitution, any statute, a requirement, order or request, made by or on behalf of the ASIC or any Governmental Agency; or any material agreement entered into by it;
- m) except as described in this Prospectus, the Company alters its capital structure or its constitution without the prior written consent of Argonaut;
- n) there is an outbreak of hostilities or a material escalation of hostilities (whether or not war has been declared) after the date of the Underwriting Agreement involving one or more of Australia, Indonesia, Japan, Russia, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, or the Peoples Republic of China, other than hostilities involving Afghanistan or Iraq, any country bordering Afghanistan or Iraq or any Arab country (being a country the majority of whose inhabitants are of Arab ethnicity);
- o) a force majeure, which prevents or delays an obligation under the Underwriting Agreement, lasting in excess of 2 weeks occurs;
- p) the Company is in default of any of the terms and conditions of the Underwriting Agreement or breaches any warranty or covenant given or made by it under that Agreement;
- q) any adverse change occurs which materially impacts or is likely to impact the assets, operational or financial position of the Company or a Related Body Corporate (including but not limited to an administrator, receiver, receiver and manager, trustee or similar official being appointed over any of the assets or undertaking of the Company or a Related Body Corporate); or
- r) The Company suspends payment of its debts generally, an Event of Insolvency occurs in respect of a Related Body Corporate or a judgment in an amount exceeding $50,000 is obtained against the Company or a Related Body Corporate and is not set aside or satisfied within 7 days.

General

The business activities of the Company are subject to various risks that may impact on the future performance of the Company. While most risk factors are largely beyond the control of the Company and its Directors, the Company will seek to mitigate the risks where possible and economically viable (for example, by obtaining appropriate insurances and by putting in place safeguards and appropriate systems).

An investment in the Company carries no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, return of capital or price at which New Shares or New Options will trade, or whether New Options will be of any value.

A number of material risk factors are set out below. This list is not exhaustive and potential applicants should examine the contents of this Prospectus and consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for New Shares.

When used in this “Risks” section, the term “Company” includes the Company and its subsidiaries and references to the business of the Company includes the businesses of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Risks relating to the Offer

Applicants are being offered New Shares at a price of $0.35, which may be higher than or lower than the market price of Shares at the time New Shares are issued under the Offer. The market price of Shares will fluctuate during the Offer period and afterwards. There is an ongoing risk, which exists for shares in all companies, that the share price may fall in the future.

General and industry risks

The Company is subject to the inherent risks of mining exploration and development industries and general economic risks in varying degrees. A non-exhaustive list of some of the more important of these risks is set out below.

- Economic conditions: Economic conditions, both domestic and global, may affect the performance of mining exploration and development companies like the Company. Adverse changes in such things as global and country-by-country economic growth, the level of economic activity and inflation, interest rates, exchange rates, government policy (including fiscal, monetary and regulatory policies), general consumption and consumer spending, employment rates and industrial disruption, among others, are outside the control of the Company and may result in material adverse impacts on the Company's business and its operating results.

- Share market conditions: As the Company is listed on the ASX, its share price is subject to the numerous influences that may affect both the trends in the share market and the share prices of individual companies, including movements in international and local stock markets, changes in the outlook for commodities (more specifically, gold, copper, silver and other minerals), inflation, interest rates, general economic conditions and changes in government, fiscal, monetary and regulatory policies. In the future, these factors may cause Shares to trade below current prices and may affect the income and expenses of the Company.
- General legal and taxation matters: Future earnings, asset values and the relative attractiveness of Shares may be affected by changes in law and government policy, in particular, changes to taxation law (including transaction and other duty, capital gains tax and GST) and new or revised taxes such as resource rent taxes.
- Commodity price fluctuations: The price of gold, copper, silver and other minerals is influenced by numerous variable factors, including laws and regulations, economic conditions and physical and trading demand and supply. Fluctuations in gold, copper, silver and other mineral prices may, positively or negatively, influence the operating and financial performance of projects and businesses in which the Company has an interest or proposes to have an interest, notwithstanding that the Company may at some point obtain long term sale agreements (in which the pricing provisions may include periodic review to market during the term of the agreements).
- Exploration and development risks: The Company is exposed to the risks inherent in exploration, development, mining and processing of mineral products. The key risks include: the grade and tonnage of valuable constituent in an ore-body may not be what was originally estimated from the drilling, analysis and resource/reserve estimation; exploration for additional ore-bodies or extension of existing ore-bodies may not be successful or yield results which are either lower than expected or inconsistent with earlier data; applications for mining tenements may not be granted; the feasibility study for the development of any proposed mine and processing facilities may provide results which mean that the development of the mine is either uneconomic in current market conditions or provides insufficient returns for the risks involved; the physical and chemical response of ore to treatment may not be completely in accord with the design flow-sheet adopted; the capital and operating costs may be different to that estimated from the design and feasibility study; the equity and debt financing required to fund the development of new projects or expansion of existing projects may not be available or, if they are available, only be available on terms which are not sufficiently favourable to allow the development to proceed; the production rates of ore mined and processed may be different to that forecast in the design and feasibility study; and the product specification may be different to that expected from test-work and analysis at the design and feasibility stage. Also, because most of the Company's revenues and profits are related to its minerals operations, its results and financial conditions are directly related to the success of its exploration and acquisition efforts and the ability to replace existing reserves. A failure in the Company's ability to discover new reserves, enhance existing reserves or develop new operations in sufficient quantities to maintain or grow the current level of reserves could negatively affect the Company's results, financial condition and prospects.
- Mining related issues: Exploration drilling and transition of resource discoveries to commercial production are endeavours which may be positively or negatively impacted by numerous issues including, but not limited to, mining, petroleum, heritage and environmental legislation (including exploration and mining licence and permit approvals), industrial disputes, cost overruns, native title claims and compensation, native heritage issues and other unforeseen contingencies.
- Native title claims: It is possible that native title claims may be lodged in relation to land in which the Company may have an interest. Similar such legislation and issues may also exist in other countries in which the Company may invest in the future. Claims of this nature may prevent a project proceeding, delay project development or result in additional project development costs.
- Recovery: There is the risk that discoveries in which the Company invests may fail to realise their estimated potential recoverable resources or reserves and/or production rates.
- Contract risks: The Company is and will in the future be a party to numerous contracts and agreements. Numerous of these contracts and agreements relate directly or indirectly to the provision of funding, services and product by the Company and include provisions which may impose financial and/or other claims on the Company for non-performance of the Company's obligations under the contract/agreement. Such provisions may include, amongst other things, liquidated damages, latent defects/damages and warranties and indemnities. A material claim under such provisions could adversely impact on the Company's operating and financial performance.
- Counterparty risks: There exists the risk that counterparties to contracts and agreements with the Company may breach the terms of such contracts and agreements. Such breach or breaches may lead to default by the counterparty and termination of the relevant contract by the Company. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in assessing the operating and financial capability of contracting counterparties to fulfil their relevant contractual obligations, and procure credit support where necessary and available, it is not possible to fully mitigate such counterparty risks and a breach of contract by a counterparty could adversely impact on the operating and financial performance of the Company.
- Competition risks: The businesses in which the Company is involved are subject to domestic and global competition. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business investment decisions and controls, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and businesses.

- Environmental risks: Development of mineral resources has some impact on the environment. It is possible that environmental claims could arise in the future against the Company and the potential for liability is an ever-present risk. The Company is required to comply with certain environmental management issues from time to time.
- Government policy: Industry profitability can be affected by changes in government, both within Australia and externally, which are not within the control of the Company. The Company's activities are subject to extensive laws and regulations controlling not only the activities of the Company, but also the possible effects of such activities upon the environment and upon interests of native and/or indigenous peoples, among other things. Permits from a variety of regulatory authorities are required for many aspects of the Company's business. There is no assurance that permits will be obtained when sought or that unfavourable conditions will not be imposed. Future legislation and regulations could cause additional expense, capital expenditures, restrictions and delays in the development of the Company's projects and technologies, the extent of which cannot be predicted.
- Weather and climatic conditions: The current and future operations of the Company, including development and production, may be affected by limitations on activities due to seasonal and unexpected weather patterns, heavy rain, floods and other weather and climate conditions.
- Country risks: The Company may undertake investments in the future in various countries where the economic, legal and political conditions vary from Australia. In addition, the relevant economic, legal and political conditions may change from time to time and such changes may have a positive or negative impact on the Company's projects or businesses in the relevant country. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in assessing the risks associated with those countries in which it invests the economic, legal and political conditions of such countries and any changes thereto are outside the control of the Company.
- Key personnel risks: Various activities relating to the Company's projects and businesses require personnel with appropriate industry experience and qualifications and in some cases the loss of such key personnel may have an impact on the relevant activities of the Company. The Company will endeavour to appropriately secure the tenure of key personnel on competitive market terms and in most cases it is likely that appropriate replacement personnel will be available from the market. However, there is a well-documented skills shortage in Western Australia and this could continue to have an effect on the Company and its projects.
- Foreign currency exchange rate risks: Revenue and expenditure of the Company may be domiciled in currencies other than Australian dollars and as such expose the Company to foreign exchange movements, which may have a positive or negative influence on the Australian dollar equivalent of such revenue and expenditure. The Company may invest in projects and businesses in countries outside Australia in which case movements in the currency of the relevant country against the Australian dollar may increase or decrease the Australian dollar equivalent value of the investment. The Company will appropriately monitor and assess such risks and may from time to time implement measures, such as foreign exchange currency hedging, to assist manage these risks. However, hedging may not be implemented in all cases and the measures themselves may expose the Company to related risks.
- Insurance risks: The Company may, where economically practicable and available, endeavour to mitigate some project and business risks by procuring relevant insurance cover. However, such insurance cover may not always be available or economically justifiable and the policy provisions and exclusions may render a particular claim by the Company outside the scope of the insurance cover. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in assessing the creditworthiness of its insurance providers there will remain the risk that an insurer defaults in payment of a legitimate claim by the Company under an insurance policy.
- Industrial dispute risks: The Company's projects and businesses may be adversely impacted by industrial disputes by employees of the Company, its contractors, its contract counterparties and/or other third parties. The Company will endeavour to provide working conditions, including salaries, which are consistent with best industry practice for the country and/or region in which it conducts its projects and businesses. The Company will also endeavour to ensure its contractors and contract counterparties also adopt such practices. However, the risk of industrial disputes and the potential negative impact on a project or business of the Company cannot be fully mitigated.
- Terrorism and war risks: The Company's projects and businesses may be adversely impacted by acts of terrorism or war. While the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in assessing the risks of terrorism and war in the countries and regions in which it invests, the risks of acts of terrorism and war cannot be fully mitigated.

Risks specific to the Company and its business

The Company is also subject to risks which are specific to the Company and its businesses. A non-exhaustive list of some of the more important of these risks is set out below.

- Production risks: The Company's production of mineral resources may be adversely impacted by numerous issues including, but not limited to, land access, force majeure circumstances, floods, native title and heritage and environmental legislation, industrial disputes, cost overruns, governmental approval, licensing and permitting processes and other unforeseen contingencies. Such issues could render production uneconomical, result in a need to cease development of a project, adversely impact on the operating and financial performance of a project or result in a need to shut down a project. There is no assurance that the Company's attempts to develop and exploit its projects will be successful or that production will remain profitable in the long term. The operations of the Company may be affected by various factors not within its control, including operational and technical difficulties encountered in production, sourcing difficulties, commissioning difficulties, difficulties operating and maintaining plant and equipment, mechanical failure, industrial accidents, processing deficiencies, labour shortages, industrial and environmental disputes, maintaining government approvals, flooding or other adverse weather conditions, fire, explosions and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant equipment or labour. These risks and hazards could also result in damage to or destruction of production facilities, personal injury, environmental damage, business interruption, monetary losses and possible legal liability. The Company may become subject to liability for accidents, pollution or other hazards against which it cannot insure or against which it may elect not to insure because of premium costs or for other reasons, or in amounts which exceed policy limits.

- Future financing requirements: At some point in time, the Company may require further financing to develop projects or to meet future objectives. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining the financing required as and when needed, particularly given recent volatility in global financial markets. Despite the Company's capital raising track record, volatile markets for commodities may make it difficult or impossible for the Company to obtain debt financing or equity financing on favourable terms or at all. Failure to obtain additional financing on a timely basis may cause the Company to postpone future development plans or reduce or terminate some or all of its operations.

The above statement of risk factors is by way of illustration only. There are numerous other risk factors inherent in an investment in the Company's securities, and there can be no assurance whatsoever that a return on investment will be obtained by investing in the Company's securities, or that the investment therein will not be lost. Further, an investment in the Company's securities should be considered in light of recent Australian and world events, which have had a significant impact on the stability of financial markets in Australia and worldwide and the ultimate consequences of which cannot be predicted with any certainty.

Otherwise, leave this box blank and your Shares will automatically be Issuer Sponsored on allotment.
